

Year 12 Criminology Learning Journey

WHERE HAVE YOU BEEN?

Why are we learning this?

Unit 1 helps us to understand the impact of media reporting on crime and the affect that unreported crime has on the statistics we will use throughout the course. Campaigns are a powerful way to make changes to laws and policies which could be creating the injustices we study in Year 13. Unit 2 explores the reasons that people commit crime which helps us to understand the appropriate sentences to impose which we study in Year 13.

Why are we learning this?

Unit 3 helps students to identify the range of careers available through study of Criminology and supports them in choosing their next steps after College. It also explores the impact of the criminal justice system on crime levels in England and Wales. Unit 4 brings together all the learning from prior units as we investigate how best to deal with criminals in the hope of reducing both recidivism and first-time offending.
