

The History Department at The Mirfield Free Grammar Year 7: Our History 'Learning Journey'

Why were Kings back in fashion by 1660?

Summative Assess (50 marks)

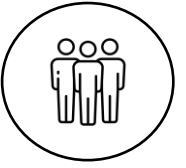

Summative Assess (50 marks)

You will study:

- The relationships between the monarch and parliament
- The events of the English Civil War
- The process of restoration and the changing power of the monarch.

Why?

- To understand how the role of the monarchy changed.
- To evaluate two different interpretations of the Civil War.

Formative Assess.

The Golden Age – Elizabeth I: Myth or Reality?

You will study:

- Significant changes to culture and society such as the theatre.
- The difference between wealthy and poor in society.
- The methods of control and challenges faced by a monarch.

Why?

- To evaluate how culture changed between the medieval and Renaissance period.
- To use 'inference' to evaluate sources and interpretations.

Summative Assess (50 marks)

Summative Assess (50 marks)

How important was the Church by 1547?

Formative Assess.

You will study:

- Role of religion in shaping British History and people's lives.
- The role of the monarch compared to the Church and challenges that have taken place.
- The changing nature of the Church's role in society.

Why?

- To understand how the role of the church changed and how this occurred.
- To use the concepts of Change and Continuity to explain events.

Formative Assess.

How did the Normans conquer and control England?

Summative Assess (50 marks)

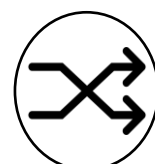

What is History? English Heritage

You will study:

- Chronology and causes linked to battles of 1066
- Methods of control and the impact of the Monarch on the people of Britain.
- British heritage sites such as Castles.

Why?

- To link together chronological knowledge and use specific examples to explain an enquiry.
- To evaluate the concepts of similarity and difference.

You will study:

- Key historical terminology such as: chronology, inference, source.
- The history of the local area.
- Events in British history that took place before 1066.