

4. How did the New Elizabethans change Britain?

Summative Assess (50 marks)

Summative Assess (50 marks)

You will study:

- This is a social history of the late twentieth century.
- This focusses on individuals who shaped our modern world.

Why?

- To evaluate the chronology of events that led to societal progress and reform during the 20th century.
- To compare and evaluate how convincing different interpretations are.

Formative Assess.

3. How did the Cold War become an international crisis?

You will study:

- The end of the Second World War and international relations.
- The rise of Communism in Europe and its impact on international relations.

Why?

- To evaluate the concept of tension between different political theories.
- To explain how we can support or challenge the utility of a source.

Summative Assess (50 marks)

2. How did the Holocaust change the lives of minorities?

Formative Assess.

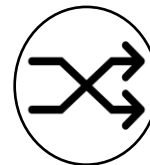

Summative Assess (50 marks)

You will study:

- Pre War Jewish life and the roots of anti-Semitism in Europe.
- The impact of policies and propaganda on Jewish people and other minorities.
- Britain's response to the Holocaust.

Why?

- To evaluate the impact of the events of the Holocaust on the wider-world.
- To evaluate why 'provenance' is useful to an enquiry.

Formative Assess.

1. How was morale built on the Home Front?

You will study:

- The role of the British government during the SWW.
- The power of propaganda.
- How the events of the SWW shaped British society.

Why?

- To evaluate the chronology of events that shaped a post-war Britain.
- To explain how useful sources are to historians.

